PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Every Board member brings a different skill set and area of expertise to the table. When we put these skills together, we have a well-rounded and smooth-functioning Board whose number one priority on any issue is determining "Is it good for the majority of Park members?"

In January's elections, the positions of Vice President, Treasurer, and three Directors are open. I urge members to consider volunteering to run for these Board positions for, without them, the HVR we know would cease to function.

Let me address the duties of these open positions:

The Vice President's duties are to assume leadership of the Board if the President is unable to perform his duties and will have all the powers and be subject to the same restrictions as the President. The VP also performs other duties as needed.

The Treasurer's job is probably the most time-consuming. The Treasurer has custody and responsibility for all funds of the corporation, is responsible for all expenses, and for keeping records including filing all required tax forms. The treasurer has the option of appointing a member in good standing as an assistant to help manage these duties and other responsibilities.

Directors serve many functions, but are primarily a Board liaison for the many committees we have in the Park. They also bring valuable feedback to the Board.

Please consider donating your time and knowledge to the HVR Board. Nominate yourself and/or encourage others to run. The closing date is December 15th.

Finally, on behalf of the Board, let me wish Happy holidays to Everyone!

Jim Bowans

Members Meeting

WELCOME BACK, Y'ALL

Greetings to those members "just getting in" to the Park after Thanksgiving and before Christmas. You're here now, and we're glad you're back!

WELCOME, RENTERS, as well. Whether new or returnees, Renters are reminded that whether renting for just a week, a month, or for the entire Season, you must be registered at the office.

Obtain a copy of our bylaws. Be informed of such things as a maximum two pets per site!

As Renters, you of course have access to every Park amenity (except HVRPOA meetings). Your Landlord paid your lot's HOA fees for that purpose, so enjoy all that our beautiful Park offers!

FRONT OFFICE HOLIDAY HOURS

So that our Office volunteers can enjoy a well-deserved break for the Holidays, please note that the Front Desk will be closed:

Thurs & Fri Dec 23th & 24th
and Thurs & Fri Dec 30st & 31st

NOTE: Because of the reduced office hours around the Holidays, the newsletter DEADLINE for submitting notices of upcoming January events is moved up a week to the eighteenth (18th) of Dec. This is to allow time for Editor preparation, usual Board approval of the draft copy, and office printing/posting to all take place around this busy holiday time and get the January issue out to you.

Choosing to wear a mask is a personal choice at this time and, as such, does not warrant any member who wears one to say negative comments towards another member who isn't wearing one. Neither does it warrant snide remarks or jokes about someone who does wear one!

Be kind and tolerant to one another, Folks!

THINKING OF RENOVATING?

HVR owners wishing to make ANY exterior changes to their property (such as awning, deck, shed, concrete, etc) are reminded that they must first seek approval of their plans from the HVR Architectural Committee, then obtain proper permits from the County. SCHEDULE OF ACTIVITIES

First, most activities – but not all – have re-started. Check around regarding the activities you enjoy to ensure they're active again.

Second, please continue to let the Editors know of any omissions and/or corrections so that an accurate up-to-date list of the regular activities and a monthly calendar of SPECIAL events can be printed each month.

MINUTES OF THE BOARD MEETINGS

The minutes of any Board Meeting are available for members to read on the Park's website HVRPOA.com. In this way, you can stay informed on the discussions and decisions that take place.

Please allow a day or two for the minutes of the latest meeting to be transcribed and posted.

GOTTA LOVE THE GRANDKIDS

"Grandma, do you know how you and God are alike?"

I mentally polished my halo and I asked, "No, Sweetie, how are we alike?"

He replied "You're both really old."

- - - - -

"Grandma, today in school we learned how to make babies."

Trying to remain cool, I said, "That's interesting. How do you make babies?"

"Its simple." she explained. "You just change "y" to "i" and add "es".

UPCOMING JANUARY ELECTIONS

Candidates are needed for the following Board Positions:

Vice-President Treasurer

Directors (three positions open)

The cut-off date for nominations is tentatively Dec 15th, but nominations from the floor might also occur at the January Meeting.

Biographies of candidates are posted in the Clubhouse, and on the HVR website at: HVRPOA.COM/WP-CONTENT/CANDIDATES

(Tentative) MEET THE CANDIDATES ?

Details and a date for this event TBA.

Absentee Voting

Absentee ballots count towards a quorum, so the Board is encouraging members who are away to vote by this alternate method.

Ballots and absentee forms are (or will soon be) available at the office, or through the HVRPOA.COM website. Mail them quickly to assure being received before the January meeting. Late mail arrivals will not count.

YOUTHFUL COLLECTIONS

In the last newsletter, we listed some celebrities and the things they collect (like Tom Hank's manual typewriters, Dan Aykroyd's police badges, and Will Ferrell's rare birds).

We invited HVR members to share their childhood collections.

Here are some of the responses:

1. Art G: "baseball cards"
2. Shawn Q: "Tonka toys"
3. Carl F: "baseball cards"
4. Linda F: "paper dolls"
5. Gayle C: "ceramic horses"
6. Judy W: "movie star pics on Dixie cup lids"
7. Name withheld: "bodies. I've hidden my most famous two (Jimmy Hoffa & Amelia Earhart) right here in HVR. Wait, is this going to be published?"

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR AUDIT AND INVENTORY COUNT

A few volunteers are needed to do the annual audit and also the inventory count before year's end. If you are interested in helping out with either task, there is a sign-up sheet on the kitchen counter in the Clubhouse. Sign up asap as volunteers must be approved by membership at the December meeting.

HVRPOA FEES COMING DUE

HVR owner's yearly $300 HVRPOA fees are due January 2nd. Bills can be picked up at the HVR Office weekdays 9-11. They are not mailed out.

Note: Since Jan 2 is a Sunday, and with the Holiday office closures, the last day before that deadline that the front office will be open to receive payments will be Wed Dec 29th.

Owners not in the Park this Season are reminded to make arrangements for payments asap. Checks made out to Hidden Valley Ranch should be received before the deadline. Include a note specifying your lot number(s). Direct deposits or bank transfers are not available at this time.

DO WHAT YOU GOTTA DO!

An old man calls his son and says, "Listen, your mother and I are getting divorced. Forty-five years of misery is enough."

"Dad, what are you talking about?", the son screams.

"We can't stand the sight of each other any longer", the old man continues. "I'm sick of her face and I'm sick of talking about it. Call your sister and tell her," and he hangs up.

Now, the son is worried. He calls his sister and tells her. She says. "No way are they getting divorced!" and she immediately calls their father. "You're not getting divorced. Don't do another thing. The two of us are flying home tomorrow to talk about this. Until then, don't call a lawyer, don't file a paper. DO YOU HEAR ME?" she yells and slams down the phone.

The old man turns to his wife and smiles, "OK, they're both coming home for Christmas AND paying their own airfares!"

SOME FRIENDLY REMINDERS:

- Cover the hot tub when done (no matter what time of day) to help reduce heat loss / costs.
- Turn off the fans and lights, if you're the last one out the door of any HVR building. (Exceptions: lights in bathroom hallway and over the front desk of clubhouse.)
- Please observe posted speed and STOP signs throughout the Park. This includes bikes and golf carts. SLOW DOWN.
- Pick up any citrus fruit lying on the ground. It needs to be picked up often, so as to not entice rodents, or allow potential new HVR buyers to see an unkempt Park.
- Park residents in temporary need of crutches, a cane, a rolling walker, potty chair, or wheelchair may borrow them free from the Office (if not already loaned out).
- Pick up after your pets. Non-Service Pets are not allowed in any HVR building.
- If you notice an HVR item in need of maintenance or repair, please fill out a form found on the wall by the front desk. Let's nip small repairs in the bud before they become big costly repairs. Thanks!
- If you see someone new in the Park, make an effort to introduce yourself. Find out their hobbies or interests and offer to bring and introduce them to that activity's group.
- Consider walking the dog of a less-mobile neighbor a few times a week (if not daily). All three of you will benefit from this.
- If you use any Park facilities, clean it up/straighten it up when through. Leave it looking better than when you walked in.

OVERHEARD:

"Don't rush me. I'm only on my third coffee, still debating whether I want to be productive today."

VEGGIE TRUCK

Fresh produce is available every Friday 12:30 in the North parking lot of the Clubhouse.
Truck doesn't stay long, so be there on time.

WHAT TO DO, WHAT TO DO ??

HVR is more than just a seasonal place to sit indoors, having escaped from the northern cold. There's lots to do while you're here. Try something different this year. Who knows what fun you will have and new friends you will meet.

ANDY Lander's Advice for Men:

Dear Andy: My wife ignores me, no matter what I do to get her attention. Any tips?

Andy here: I've found all I have to do is just sit down, put the football game on TV, and look comfortable.

Dear Andy: My neighbour goes out running every morning, and tells me I should be doing it too. Are the benefits as healthy as he claims?

Andy here: Research has shown that laughing for three minutes is just as beneficial as a 20 minute run. So why not just sit on a bench in the park and laugh at the joggers going by?

Dear Andy: I just bought a brand new truck with all the bells and whistles. It is sure a sweet ride. Sure wish you could see it!

Andy here: If you are trying to impress me with your vehicle, it had better be a food truck.

SCHEDULED ENTERTAINMENT

Our fun-filled New Year's Eve Party will have you up and dancing to the sounds from a great variety band called High Country. Brenda Cohn will be joining them. Tesa & Mike Heldenbrand will also attend.

$15 pp advance tickets will be going on sale to HVR residents December 7th 8:30-9:30am and to other parks Dec 8th.

Doors open at 7p, music starts at 8. Decorate your own table; bring your own snacks. Don't miss the FUN!

WEIRD CHRISTMAS TRADITIONS

JAPAN: Forget the Christmas turkey. For many Japanese, traditional Christmas dinner is KFC, due to a combination of tiny ovens and a clever marketing campaign convincing locals that fried chicken is a traditional American yuletide feast.

NORWAY: Hide your broom. They believe Christmas Eve coincides with the arrival of evil spirits and witches. It is only logical then that Norwegian households hide all their brooms before they go to sleep. After all, nothing spoils Christmas quicker than finding your broom in broken pieces at the foot of your tree, trashed by some joy-riding witch.

In CARACUS, it is customary to travel to the Christmas Eve church services on roller skates.

A GREENLAND Christmas dinner includes mattak: raw whale skin with a little blubber. Maybe Grannie's brussel sprouts aren't so bad after all.

UKRAINE: Deck the halls with.... spider webs? In addition to the standard tinsel and lights, Ukrainians throw an artificial spider web on the tree as well. Tradition says a poor woman who couldn't afford decorations woke up on Christmas morning to discover a spider had covered it in a glorious sparkling web. It's believed to be good luck, not a statement about poor housekeeping.

PORTUGAL families set extra places at the dining table for deceased relatives. It is thought the practice will endure good fortunes for the household in the coming year.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA: On Christmas Eve, unmarried Czech women stand with their back to the door and toss one of their shoes over their shoulder. If it lands with the toe facing the door, it means they will be married within the year. If it lands the other way, they're in for another year of watching Bridget Jones movies. Perhaps it's better than marrying a heel, though.

GERMANY: children leave a shoe outside their bedroom door. If they've been good, they will wake to find it filled with sweets. If they've been bad, they will find only a branch. A little different from hung stockings and lumps of coal! However, in all fairness, they no doubt find that tradition of ours just as weird as we do ANY of the above traditions.

J'EVER NOTICE.....

.... In Athens, no one wakes up before noon. Apparently, or so we've all been told, dawn is tough on Greece.

FRIDAY JAMS RE-STARTING

HELP NEEDED: Volunteers are needed to help set up tables the night before, help manage the door, and help take tables down at the end.

If you can contribute some time and muscle to any part or portion of that, contact the chairperson Gary Batten (918) 742-0177

New members to the Park may not know, but this is also the time when many park-wide yard/garage sales take place.

YOU ARE WHAT YOU EAT

Your diet is not only what you eat.

It is what you watch, what you listen to, what you read, and the people you hang around.

Pay attention to what you feed your mind and soul, not just your stomach.

GATE REMOTES

HVR residents needing “after hours” passage through the Park’s canal entrance gate are reminded the “card slot” no longer works, and they now require a remote, available for purchase at the Office.

Renters can also purchase the $15 remotes and, at the end of their stay, these will be bought back for $10.

PS: If you ever need to get out of the Park in the middle of the night for a medical emergency or early flight, and you don’t have the means to open the gate, you can drive over to Leisure’s gate. It automatically opens for any vehicle that slowly approaches it.

(Note: You can get out that way, but not back in.)

TO BOOK ANY PARK ACTIVITY

1. Pick up the appropriate request form at the front desk (or directly from the document rack on the wall).
2. Complete the form and return it to the activity file in the same rack.
3. Upon confirmation (or denial) from Board through the Activities Director, your form will be placed back in the appropriate file in the rack.

Do not just assume your activity is a “go” until you receive notification via your form being returned to the rack. Be patient. This process may take several days. Director: Pat Hammond

Overheard:

“All I want for Christmas is to be taken off the call list for an extended car warranty!”

HERE IT COMES AGAIN

With the recent rebrand by Facebook to META, an old reoccurring chain message has yet again resurfaced telling users to repost it to “legally protect your data from Facebook/Meta”.

The message starts off along the lines of “Under UCC Law section... blah blah, I do not allow Facebook to” etc, etc.

It doesn’t work!

It has never – nor will it likely ever – change how Facebook handles your user data.

A post to your profile will not stop Facebook or any other social media service from collecting and sharing your data as described in the terms of service and that you agreed to when you signed up. It’s how they make their money, Folks, and they’re not going to stop on our feeble requests for exemption.

More info on WHY NOT can be found here:

<https://bit.ly/3oZ6RLR>

GARBAGE BAGS

This is a reminder that pretty much every January 1st for the past decade, the price goes up a little for a pack of five, so if you’re running low on garbage bags, consider re-stocking before the end of the year.

STAINED GLASS CLASSES

Every Friday 12-4 in the Clubhouse
$4 per class for new students (tools provided).
Free for experienced students.
Come try something new and meet others.
Info: Linda Williams sglass4me@yahoo.com

NEW YEAR’S RESOLUTION: Be Kind!

People will forget what you DID.

But people will NEVER forget how you made them feel.”

There is also a Monthly Calendar printed which highlights "Special" or significant Activities that are happening, so that they stand out more and are less likely to be missed. For examples, events such as Park meetings, fundraiser meals or a Christmas concert or ice cream social would be shown on the calendar, whereas an event which occurs each and EVERY Wednesday, for example, is in the REGULAR LIST.

Residents can then personalize this monthly calendar by filling the day's blocks with only those events which concern or interest them. Or, grab a highlighter and mark up the above list!
